

Māris Kučinskis to meet Prime Minister of China

 Published more than 8 years ago

Published: 28.10.2016.

On Friday 4 November, Prime Minister Māris Kučinskis will meet Prime Minister of the People's Republic of China Li Keqiang in Rīga.

During the meeting, Māris Kučinskis and Prime Minister of China will discuss the cooperation between the two countries in the fields of economy, science and culture. The signing of a number of cooperation documents is also planned.

This is the first official visit of the Prime Minister of China to Latvia, and during the visit, the Chinese Prime Minister will meet with senior officials of Latvia and participate in the events of the cooperation format between Central and Eastern European countries and China ("16+1").

Media opportunities (times are subject to change):

Pool 1

9.25 Prime Ministers exchange greetings – photo and video opportunities. Only for photographers and video operators!

Pool 2

10.35 Signing of cooperation agreements, as well as messages by Prime Minister Māris Kučinskis and Prime Minister of China Li Keqiang – photo and video opportunities.

To the media attention:

The representatives of the mass media (also those who are accredited at the Cabinet of Ministers) are kindly asked to apply before Monday 31 October, 16:00 to email: zane.skujina@mk.gov.lv.

Information about time of arrival will be provided separately.

Andrejs Vaivars

Press Secretary to the Prime Minister

Phone: 29228678

E-mail: Andrejs.Vaivars@mk.gov.lv

Related topics

Prime Minister

<https://www.mk.gov.lv/en/article/maris-kucinskis-meet-prime-minister-china>