Key Moments in the Co-Creation Process

Action Plan Co-Creation Process

Guided by the OGP Participation and Co-Creation Standards

- + 5 Ambitious Standards

All countries should aim to meet the Standards, which outline the approach to public participation for the development and implementation of a action plans.

- + 8 Minimum Requirements

Each of the five standards has clear and measurable minimum requirements that all countries must meet.

OGP Participation & Co-Creation Standards

- 1 Establishing a space for dialogue among government, civil society and NGOs.
- 2 Providing open, accessible, timely information about activities and progress within a member's participation in OGP.
- 3 Providing inclusive & informed opportunities for public participation
- 4 Providing a reasoned response and ensuring meaningful participation
- 5 Providing inclusive & informed opportunities for participation in implementation & monitoring of the action plan.

Minimum Requirements

1.1 Space for dialogue meets at least every 6 months and its basic rules are publicly available.

2.1 There is a publicly accessible website which contains, at a minimum, the latest action plan.

2.2 An online repository has updated information on co-creation and implementation of the action plan.

3.1 The co-creation timeline and the overview of opportunities for stakeholders to participate is published on the OGP website at least two weeks before the start of the co-creation process.

3.2 Outreach activities are carried out to provide information on OGP and opportunities to get involved.

3.3 There is a mechanism to gather inputs from stakeholders and for an appropriate period of time.

4.1 The Multi-Stakeholder Forum or government documents contributions and reports back or publishes written feedback to stakeholders on how they were considered during development of the action plan.

5.1 Meetings are held with civil society stakeholders to present implementation results and enable civil society to provide comments.

Action plan design: reform areas

- Deepen participatory democracy
  - Pilot deliberative methods
  - Enhance National Dialogues
  - Create a citizen participation team or network
- Strengthen participatory budgeting in municipalities
  - Awareness raising and capacity building
  - Oversight and monitoring
- Introduce a whole-of-government Open Data strategy
